Morally unprincipled; shameless. Rejected by God and without hope of salvation

Divination

1. The act of divining; a foretelling future events, or discovering things secret or obscure, by the aid of superior beings, or by other than human means. The ancient heathen philosophers divided divination into two kinds, natural and artificial. Natural divination was supposed to be effected by a kind of inspiration or divine afflatus; artificial divination was effected by certain rites, experiments or observations, as by sacrifices, cakes, flour, wine, observation of entrails, flight of birds, lots, verses, omens, position of the stars, &c.

Enchanter

One who enchants; a sorcerer or magician; one who has spirits or demons at his command; one who practices enchantment, or pretends to perform surprising things by the agency of demons.

Witch

1. A woman who by compact with the devil, practices sorcery or enchantment.
2. A woman who is given to unlawful arts.

Charmer

1. One that charms, or has power to charm; one that uses or has the power of enchantment.

Wizard

A conjurer; an enchanter; a sorcerer.

Necromancer

One who pretends to foretell future events by holding converse with departed spirits; a conjurer.
